Vice-Chancellor

Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar

One of the biggest tasks before the world today is promotion of education among those who do not have ample resources to go in for specialised courses. Sikh Human Development Foundation is doing great service to humanity by way of providing financial assistance to the deserving and needy students. Guru Nanak Dev University being an institution committed to excellence, has launched several programmes to support the students in terms of scholarships, books and fee concession through its own resources and philanthropic organizations.

The contributions of SHDF to provide scholarships to deserving students of the Guru Nanak Dev University and its affiliated colleges are praiseworthy. I wish the SHDF a great success for this noble cause.
