

Message from Sardar Saran Singh I.A.S. (Retd.), Editor, Sikh Review

April 2, 2004

Greetings to the Sikh Human Dev. Foundation

The objectives of your Foundation exemplify the essential principle of Guru Nanak's dictum:

“ ਗੁਰਖਰਸਾਈ ਵਿਦਿਆ ਵੀਚਾਰੈ ਯਤਿ ਯਤਿ ਯਾਵੈ ਮਾਨੁ ॥
ਆਖਾ ਮਯੇ ਆਖੁ ਯਰਗਾਸਿਆ ਯਾਦਿਆ ਅੰਮ੍ਰਿਤ ਨਾਮੁ ॥ ”
— SGGS:1329.

The future doubtless belongs to the younger generation of Sikhs across the globe. They are the inheritors of the above noted enlightenment principle which has indeed acquired a certain urgency in This age of technology.

The dynamics of the Khalsa discipline are rooted in Guru Gobind Singh's inspirational declaration: "nischay kar apni jeet karon!" Shedding all fear our people need to re-inforce the faith and acquire the confidence to scale new heights in professional excellence, harnessing the God given skills and insights for the good of humanity.

Over the last four years your Foundation has done commendable work reflected in the number of scholarships awarded to meritorious and needy students. Mobilising additional resources is therefore a legitimate and logical quest.

I wish you God speed in these endeavors,

Saran Singh